DECISION/CRITERIA

- Applying for the PR Grant program does not guarantee component will receive grant award.
- The MDA Committee on Public Relations will evaluate all applications and determine the winning six components by the end of the year.
- All applications will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- How well the component's project relates to the mission of increasing the public's awareness and knowledge of the importance of oral health.
 - How well the component's project will effectively impact their community.
- The maximum awarded to the winning components is $5,000
- In cases where a component submits multiple projects the MDA reserves the right to choose which projects are eligible and how the grant should be allocated.
- The decisions of the MDA and Committee on Public Relations on matters involving the PR Grant program are final, binding and not appealable.
- The MDA PR Grant program is subject to all federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and is void where prohibited by law.
- The MDA reserves the right to disqualify any application that it determines, in its sole discretion, does not comply with these official guidelines.
